READY Outreach Session

Rebecca Garland – Chief Academic Officer, NC Department of Public Instruction

The 2013 CCSA will feature a READY Outreach session tailored for conference participants. The Department of Public Instruction staff will present this session to answer questions and address concerns as we all work together to ensure a smooth transition to the new Common Core and Essential Standards and other elements of NC's READY initiative.

Assessment and Accountability: Embracing Transition

Tammy Howard and other DPI Staff – Director, Division of Accountability Services, NC Department of Public Instruction

North Carolina and the nation are in the midst of sweeping changes involving student assessment and national and state accountability systems. The adoption of college and career standards and expectations, evolving online assessment delivery systems, Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium computer adaptive assessments, flexibility in national accountability reporting, and North Carolina school performance grades are not on the horizon, they are a reality.
